Chapter one: love affair

The secret love affair occurred when the two first met working together as business partners they names were Benjamin and Beverly the two have been seeing each other and having sexually contact for a while Benjamin was a married man with one child and Beverly she was single with no children Beverly knew that Benjamin was a married man but she did not care. She decided to still continue creeping around with Benjamin, Beverly met and knew Benjamin's wife and his kid they met at business meetings and events it was so crazy because Beverly was a little close to the wife they were friends to at one point in time but she never knew that Beverly was sleeping around with her husband. Benjamin and Beverly used to creep and sleep around with each other they use to meet up sometimes at each other's houses or in hotels Benjamin was madly in love with Beverly on the low key he really had the hots for her she did things with him sexually that his wife did not do with him but the only thing was Beverly did not know that Benjamin had other woman on his hands that he was seeing also but him and Beverly was real good friends the only part was that Beverly messed up and mixed business with pleasure and ended up falling in love with Benjamin. Benjamin had other business partners as female women when Beverly did not see Benjamin for a while she would get upset she could not understand why she did not hear from him or to why he was not calling her for business proposals frequently well it was because he was busy working with other people Beverly did not pressure it too much plus she was doing her working projects and dealing with her independent responsibilities that she had going on. Finally Tuesday afternoon Beverly received an voicemail message from Benjamin this was the message that he left on her voicemail box " Hey bell it's ben I know it's been a while since we have seen each other but I been very busy baby i just wanted to tell you that I love and miss you see you soon ben." Beverly then saved the message on her voicemail she love hearing his voice he sounded so sexy on her answering machine she smiled while listening to it. The two was both really busy with work but when they got to see each other and spent together time in secret in the bedroom Beverly puts it down on him sexually nobody really blow his top like she did that's why he was creeping and cheating on his wife with her but she was not the only one and Beverly knew that.

Chapter two: womanizer

Benjamin was an very rich business man that worked for the government he worked in all type of agency's being that he had so much money he attracted a lot of women to him they came at him left and right and who ever wanted to do any business proposals all they had to do was write they name on the list Benjamin went for all of the pretty women. As all of the business deals became deep the more women came between Beverly and Benjamin Beverly had seen that Benjamin turned out to be a womanizer every woman who had step into the business he had sexual relations with them and remember he was married with a wife. The new ones was his girlfriends I mean you could not really tell if he was married or not because every time he was with a new woman acting like he had business with them with proposals basically he did not act married at all. In these new sexual relationships with these women he ended up being engaged to some of them and getting them pregnant some women had babies from him and some of the women had abortions from him Mr. Benjamin became a womanizer and the woman was a bad habit for him his wife did not know that he had new babies that was getting ready to be born by many different woman he had to seduce them and keep them quite by giving them money.

Chapter three: attach

Benjamin started getting attach to living this life style out all of his fantasy's with having secret love affairs with all of these women. He got so attached that he contacted a deadly serious disease which is HIV/AIDS he had money to pay for cures because he was a rich business man. Nobody knew that he was carrying this disease not even his wife he did not tell anyone he kept it all to himself attachment for sleeping with the enemy smiling and grinning in her face without her knowing oh baby it's just business he tells his wife but it was all business with secret sexual pleasures.

Chapter four: adultery

In Benjamin adultery ways there was not any changes made he could not stop his sexual intercourse habits that he had lusting for other women. Benjamin was also having sex with the same sex and that was with men also he was not married to any of his partners that he had sex with they were single individuals without any spouses to come home to and tell them lies and make up excuses and that's what Benjamin did to his wife make up lies and excuses up about business time to sneak and creep around. His wife had no idea that he was bisexual he went both ways on some down low shit adultery is a very serious criminal offense but he did not care the only thing was what happens when the wife finds out about all of this stuff with these secret love affairs his wife name was Victoria when these secrets got exposed to her and if she was to find out about this Victoria would be very hurt it would really hurt her to the core because he was a unfaithful lying cheating dirty dog who needed to be punished.

Chapter five: cheating

One lovely morning Benjamin woke up and got ready for work to go to the office and he forgot and left his cellular phone on the dresser and Victoria search through the phone she found text messages and even listened to the voicemail messages on the phone she could not believe some of the text messages that she had seen in the phone from both men and women this is how Victoria found out that her husband have been cheating on her under her nose she cried while reading and listening to those messages she threw the phone on the floor and started screaming from the top of her lungs she was in shock she panic and almost had to go to the hospital she almost had a nervous break down when she found out that her husband have been sleeping around with the same sex it was crazy how this situation have happened. Later on that evening Benjamin came in from work Victoria had a knife in the kitchen she was ready to stab him up in the house she confronted him about those text messages and voicemails messages she ask Benjamin was he having secret love affairs with men and women to see if he denied it and he did not deny any of it he told her that he was bisexual and she asked him why didn't he tell her before she married him she was all caught up in his bullshit yet the cheater has been caught good luck to Victoria.

Chapter six: intimate

Victoria had no idea that he was all intimate and that really close to those people that was business wise and sex wise she was the wife stuck in between bullshit with her son that she had to take care of the whole situation was ridiculous. It was like these relationships that he had with these men and women was more than friendship it was supposed to be kept confidential but somehow Victoria found out about the intimacy with Benjamin because he was her husband he came home to her day and night and sometimes they had sexually contact with each other Victoria was madly in love with Benjamin but it's a couple of things that she did not know she had no idea that he was having sex with other people other than herself he made her believed that he was faithful when he was not faithful at all he was intimate with other sex partners having three some and one night stands the intimacy between him and his women and men.

Chapter seven: sex scandal

Benjamin sex scandals was at the highest rumor list in the business of the companies government agency's that he had worked for it was so hard for the real top boss managers to get proof of evidence of if these sex scandals was true. Everybody kept hearing about it but you cannot always believe everything that you hear because it does not be true so they had one of his sex partners that he had been creeping with they paid two people a woman and a man to set him up on camera by having sexual contact on tape they needed just good enough proof to these sex scandals rumors with these men and women.

Chapter eight: deception

When Victoria found out that her husband deceived her she felt like she was defrauded and rob the rumors she kept hearing about him come to find out it was true one day Victoria was at home in her gym in the basement and the house door bell ring and it was the mail man with a small little box in his hands he ask for an signature for the package Victoria then signed for the package when she closed the door she noticed that the package was for her husband because it had his name on it she set it on the counter and went to go look for scissors to open the package she then open the package and it was a letter with two video tapes inside of it Victoria then pop the video tape in the television and it was her husband having sex with another man she was devastated to see this video tape she then put the other video tape in and seen him having sex with another women as she laughed and cried she said you can't be fucking serious is this really happening and she was like the rumors were true he had intimate sexual relations with these people under my nose she then read the letter it said dear, Mr. Benjamin Douglas this letter is about your position as government agent officer termination due to sexual relations of secret love affairs of sex tapes of evidence to terminate you so there for I hereby that you are fired due to misconduct of sexual relation.

Chapter nine: sexual relationship

There are differences in relationships but these secret love affair relationships was sexual relationships with men and woman there was no feelings to be catched it was just sexual pleasures for these moments and time the pleasures was wanted and needed but sometimes that's when mistakes happen and people get caught up in deep situations but that's what happens when you creep around there is a price that you have to pay so it will eventually catch up to you later and have to be paid for. Some of these men and women who had sexual relationships with Benjamin was in love with him they fall in love but it was just sexual intimacy for a short period of time he was a married man that wanted his cake and eat it to i found that to be greedy selfish and nasty. It's crazy how you could have a business work relationship and a sexual relationship too how would this ever work out to someone not catching feelings or wanting more in a relationship with a person more than just sex.

Chapter ten: romantic friendship

Benjamin wanted more in this secret love affair when it came down to having romantic friendships he picked his favorites men and woman that he would have liked to romance with other then his wife. The friendship was worth more than just sex he brought them gifts and even took them out to romantic dinners, shopping sprees, and vacations he romance with them a little he wanted more and they wanted more also some of those people shared they life secrets with Benjamin telling him they dreams and goals he had a very loving romantic friendship with these men and women and treated them very nicely also he had a lot of love for them as a loving healthy friendship.

Chapter eleven: private

These private life secret love affairs was finally revealed the relationships was supposed to be kept private but somehow privacy always somehow get invaded the mystery of truth comes out when everyone finds out relationships can go from being private to public. Benjamin was dating people like he was free on the market shelf when he actually wasn't he really had these men and women think that they were his couples like he was always into everything and wanted to be apart of everything these secret love affairs relations was supposed to be kept private but his partners some of them wanted to let the public know about his affairs and what he was really about the business man had multiple private secret love affairs with many different women and men.

Chapter twelve: single

Single is the best relationship freedom you could ever have it's better and you can do what you want to do with no strings attached and no feelings to be felt for being the status of single gives you the ability to find out what kind of relationship you want and what you're looking for as not to jump into marriage just for it not to work out and then be in a status of getting a divorce single is the best way to be because in the ending throughout all of the relationships your still going to be single so why go through these steps to end up back by yourself again as single. Single the best status in the world when you are single you could have all of the secret love affairs that you want but the only thing is those other people status that you're having those relations with may not be single. In the single life of being unmarried and in a stable sexual relationship a free bachelor with no children an individual alone the solitary to move how you want to move and do what you want to do it's really better to be and stay single.

Chapter thirteen: married

When being married you supposed to be committed to one women and that is you wife Benjamin married his wife Victoria in the year of 2008 throughout the years they had a pretty wonderful marriage before he became a cheater they spent more family time with each other before all of these people came along and this so called big business deals at work. They spent a lot of time with each other and went on vacations and took a lot of pictures family portraits of him his wife Victoria and his son Sammy. They had made such an awesome couple when you are married you are to be faithful to each other and united to one another two spouses together forever in a loving caring marriage and suppose to not let anyone come between the marriage. When married you are making a promise to never cheat as to your wife or husband being the only one that you're in love with and having sex with but who would have known that Benjamin was having these secret love affairs when Victoria found out that her husband was unfaithful to her and had cheated on her with numerous of men and women she was ready to get a divorce because she was sick and tired of the lies about the business deals and the so called clients that he was meeting and sleeping with them when his wife had finally went to her doctor appointment she found out that her husband had gave her aids and that he was HIV positive because he was sleeping with men and women without protection condoms and he had spread the disease to his wife he was a sick man Victoria was then just ready to divorce him stay away from him the marriage that they had was ending due to the secret love affairs and the cheating.

Chapter fourteen: divorce

Victoria went to see a lawyer and counsel about getting a divorce from Benjamin she was already for her paper work for her divorce so that she could sign the papers and move on with her life without his nasty ass in it. The divorce process was not that easy because Victoria had to find her a new house for her and her son Sammy to move into also she had to pack up her things and belongings from the house that they had together it was so much that had to be done in this divorce process but Victoria had got everything done. The divorce did not happen so quickly there was deep reasons why this divorce was happening Victoria has become irritated about this situation of marriage court battle with Benjamin it was just so much drama with the divorce because he was actually broke due to the loss of his job and getting caught on video tapes having secret love affairs with those many men and women Victoria and his work place boss had seen the tapes and they was so discussed Victoria took copies of the video tapes with him having sex with these men and women to court to show the judge why she was divorcing him it was his time to burn in hell for being a cheating devil dog. The judge granted that he pay his wife six million dollars for the divorce to his wife and son and for them to be separated and disunite from each other because all of that was in a written statement in the prenup agreement before they got married so everything got granted for Victoria and the divorce was done and the hell was finally over marriage free from stress and drama she was well established and had everything planned out.

Chapter fifteenth: committed love

In all of these secret love affairs relationships there was no committed love nobody was committed to each other they were just fooling around with one another why do fools fall in love? You are to never fall in love when everything has to be a secret because if they are keeping them affairs secret there is no telling what else they can be keeping in secret as to not telling them partners that they are having relations with. It was supposed to be love trust and honesty mutually connected Benjamin cherished every single affairs that he had with his partners sexual infidelity having sexual relationships where the principle partners were men and women relationships outside of a relationship that includes a commitment to have with these people and promise to have committed love that which led to an broken promise.

Chapter sixteen: shame of guilt

Benjamin was guilty for having these secret love affairs his world was coming to an end he felt a shame of guilt for cheating on his wife and being divorced. Guilt of lust cheating and lies it has finally caught up to him the tables turned so fast he did not know how to handle his guilt stage of depression and shame it was horrible for him to be having these affairs it was time for him to grief the shame of guilt that he was holding inside.

Chapter seventeen: emotional love

The emotion to cry your eyes out for being in love falling in love it's an emotion feeling emotional love can be vented by certain stages of life. It can be a hurtful crisis but you can make it through the nature cause of braking down. Sometimes people emotions gets the best of them and they can get violent it all depends how you keep your emotions under control it's a very hard issue to express state of being in strong emotional attachment emotional love but love is not really an emotion there is a big difference from physical love physical bodies perhaps emotion can exist without notice of appearance it all depends on the feelings felt weather they are deep feelings that hurt but in the end the message is that it's all love no matter how emotional in that moment of time of mood and behavior. What the game in the secret love affairs people sometimes end up getting hurt they will never know how they emotions is going to play out are they going to be okay with it or are they going to go crazy over the person that played them but even so they have to keep it all under control never let your emotions take you under and make you do something that you're going to regret at the end of the day it's all a state of being in emotional love.

Chapter eighteen: passion

Wine and dine in passion of secret love affairs there is a love & hate relationships in passion long term sexual desires passion was his strong feelings about his partners in his affairs he was having. The passion of love which was these love affairs sensation of pleasure or pain I think it was both he was hurting by pain and was satisfied with the pleasures of sex Benjamin was an sex feen it was a strong extravagant fondness intense sexual love of passion a strong affection to his secret love affairs. He was suffering with his illness that he had the kind of illness that he had resulted to death and he could die from it he was suffering passion love due to his secret affairs that he was having.

Chapter nineteen: dalliance

In Benjamin involvements with these socialism secret love affairs that he had interest in that he had multiple sex partners with. Was his sex scandal coming to an end? I guess it was these relationships was not lasting and was not even serious it was all about sex in some relationships in these secret affairs but sex was all he ever cared about that I don't think he even cared that some of his vitamins that he infected with his illness was hurt but that's what happens when creeping around in secret people are bound to get hurt and it can be a very painful outcome the fun and the games was over I guess Benjamin was amuse at this but the secret love affairs was ending the arouse sexual interest the other partners felt very bad for whoever was going to be his next victim of flirtation and sexual playful amusement.

Chapter twenty: devotion

In the secret love affairs there was a lot of devotion to sexual selfless affection and dedication Benjamin was open to all persons independent of cast of sex.

The end
